Students are automatically opted in to the book rental program upon registration for courses. A decision can be made to opt-out of the program. Generally, the book rental program provides a better cost savings overall for the term. The Barnes & Nobles website has an analysis tool to assist with the cost/savings of the program.

The Opt-out link will only be available on the website when the time period is open. All decisions are final by the last day of drop/add period for the term.

2nd Mini students may choose to opt-out if they are attending courses in the 2nd mini term only. If there is a combination of terms the status will follow the decision for Full term.

Reversal of charges for the Opt-out selection take 2-3 business days to reflect on the account.
